

1 of scheduled meetings. However, the house can be visited by Board members, and members may
2 speak with the homeowner. She further stated that members must come to the planned meeting
3 concerning the property without a pre-formed opinion and be open minded to the testimony presented
4 to the Board at that meeting.

9 Chair Cobb informed the Board that she has offered to purchase and apply a UV protection spray to 10 the remaining Historic District Banners to help protect them from the fading that has occurred to the 11 banners on display currently. Mrs. Reading requested the name of the product and informed Chair
12 Cobb that the Public Works Department would likely apply the UV protection.

14 7. CITIZEN COMMENTS

15
16 Mr. Scipioni, 435 N. Oak Avenue, put forth the idea of the Board having an alternate for the purpose
17 of having a quorum with no voting privileges and enquired about how one would be established.
18 Mrs. Reading expressed that previous Boards had alternates; however, she would need to research
19 how to properly revise the regulations governing the Board to allow for an alternate. He also 20 suggested a future newsletter article concerning the pattern of real estate interest in the historic 21 district. He proposed the title "From Boom to Bust to Boom".
