

ORDINANCE NO. 572

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF ORANGE CITY, FLORIDA, AMENDING THE CODE OF ORDINANCES REGARDING THE DEMOLITION OF HISTORIC PROPERTIES; PROVIDING FOR AMENDMENTS TO PART II, CHAPTER 2-ADMINISTRATION, ARTICLE III-BOARDS, COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES, DIVISION 3-HISTORIC PRESERVATION BOARD; PROVIDING FOR CODIFICATION, CONFLICTS, SEVERABILITY AND AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the City of Orange City finds and determines that the updated and revised text herein is consistent with all applicable policies of the City's adopted Comprehensive Plan and not in conflict with the public interest; and

WHEREAS, the City of Orange City finds that the amendment to the Code of Ordinances furthers the purpose and intent of Future Land Use Element, Policy 6.2.10 that requires the protection of resources listed on the National Register of Historic Places, the Florida Master Site File, the Local Register of Historic Places, and those to be discovered in the future; and

WHEREAS, on March 1, 2017, the Orange City Planning Commission found the amendment consistent with the comprehensive plan and forwarded to the City Council for approval; and

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Orange City finds it is in the best interest of the City to allow change in the Code of Ordinances as indicated in Exhibit "A";

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ORANGE CITY, FLORIDA, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. Part II, Chapter 2, Article III, Division 3 of the City's Code of Ordinances is hereby amended as shown in underline, strikethrough format in Exhibit "A", attached hereto and incorporated herein with full force and effect.

SECTION 2. CODIFICATION. It is the intention of the City Council that the provisions of this Ordinance shall become and be made part of the Code of Ordinances of the City of Orange City, Florida and the word "ordinance" may be changed to "section", "article", or other appropriate word or phrase and the sections of the Ordinance may be renumbered or re-lettered to accomplish such intention.

SECTION 3. CONFLICTS. All ordinances or parts of ordinances and all resolutions or parts of resolutions in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. SEVERABILITY: If any section, part of a section, paragraph, clause, phrase or word of this ordinance is declared invalid, the remaining provisions of this ordinance shall not be affected.

SECTION 5. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by the City Council of the City of Orange City, Florida.

Ordinance No. 572
Exhibit A

DIVISION 3. - HISTORIC PRESERVATION BOARD

Sec. 2-91. - Establishment.

This division shall be known as the Historic Preservation Program for the City of Orange City.

Sec. 2-92. - Statement of intent.

The intent of the following regulations is to serve the best interests of the health, safety, prosperity and welfare of the citizens of Orange City.

- (1) Protecting, enhancing and perpetuating historic resources that represent or reflect elements of the city's cultural, social, economic, political and architectural history.
- (2) Stabilizing and improving property values through the revitalization of older residential and commercial properties and neighborhoods.
- (3) Fostering an awareness and pride in the accomplishments and achievements of the past.
- (4) Protecting and enhancing the city's historic attractions to residents, tourists and visitors which in turn serves to stimulate the local economy and draw new business and industry.
- (5) Enriching the quality of life in Orange City by fostering knowledge of the living heritage of the past.

Sec. 2-93. - Definitions.

The following words, terms and phrases, as used in this division, shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this section, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

- ~~(1) Archaeological site. A site that contains prehistoric or historic artifacts, relics, or structures which represent a particular culture, historic event or epoch and which are of local, regional or statewide significance.~~

Appurtenances. Includes, but not limited to, walkways and driveways (whether paved or not), fences, gateways, open spaces, mailboxes, arbors, and similar structures and results of construction activities.

Board. When used in this section, it shall mean the Historic Preservation Board.

- ~~(2) Building. A structure created to shelter any form of human activity. This may refer to a house, barn, garage, church, hotel, or similar structure. Buildings may refer to a historically or architecturally related complex, such as a courthouse and jail, or a house and barn.~~

Contributing resource or property. A building, structure, or site which is at least 50 years old and contributes to the overall historic significance of a designated historic area or district and possesses historic integrity reflecting the character of a time; or is capable of yielding important information about an historically significant period; or independently meets the criteria for designation as a local historic landmark and/or district.

- ~~(3) Demolition. The tearing down or razing of 25 percent or more of a structure's external walls. The intentional act of substantially pulling down, destroying, dismantling, defacing, removing or razing a building or structure or commencing the work of a total, substantial, or partial destruction with the intent of completing the same.~~

- ~~(4) Florida Master Site File. The Florida Master Site File (FMSF) is administered by the Bureau of Historic Preservation, Division of Historical Resources, under the Florida Department of State. The Site File is a clearing house for information regarding Florida's archaeological sites, historical structures, and the field survey of archaeological and historical sites. The Master Site File relies on reports submitted by individuals and organizations throughout the state for its information. When a site is accepted into the Florida Master Site File it receives an identification number. The Orange City Historic Preservation Board utilizes the FMSF to track the official~~ inventory of cultural resources. A copy of the list is maintained in the Development Services Department.

Historic area. A general area containing properties of contributing and noncontributing historic value which may include one or more historic district(s) as described in ~~[subsection] (5)~~ belowherein.

- (5) Historic District. A geographically definable area possessing a significant concentration, linkage, or continuity of sites, landmarks, buildings, appurtenances, structures, objects, or areas, which are united historically or aesthetically by plan or physical development as the Historic Preservation Board may determine to be appropriate for historical preservation. A district may be comprised of individual resources which are separated geographically but are linked by association or history.

Historic Preservation Board (HPB). A board of citizens created by local ordinance to guide and monitor the provisions of this historic preservation ordinance.

- (6) Historic property or resource. Any prehistoric or historic district, site, building, object or other real or personal property, of historical, architectural or archaeological value. These properties or resources may include, but are not limited to, monuments, memorials, Indian habitations, ceremonial sites, abandoned settlements, engineering works, treasure troves, artifacts, or other objects with intrinsic historical or archaeological value, or any part thereof, relating to the history, government, or culture of the City of Orange City.

Landmark. Any site (including significant trees or other plant life thereon), building or structure having particular historical, architectural, or archaeological significance to the city, state or nation. Landmarks include: sites, buildings, or structures where cultural, political, spiritual, economic, social or artistic history of the community, state or nation is reflected or exemplified or which are identified with historic personages or with important events in local, state or national history, or which embody the distinguishing characteristics of an architectural specimen, inherently valuable for a representation of a period, style or method of construction, or a notable work of construction, or a notable work of a master designer or architect whose individual genius influenced his age.

National Register of Historic Places. Established by Congress in 1935, the National Register of Historic Places is a listing of culturally significant buildings, structures, objects, sites, and districts in the United States. The listing is maintained by the U.S. Department of Interior.

Non-contributing Resource or property. Any building, structure, or site which does not contribute to the overall historic significance of a designated historic district due to alterations, disturbances or other changes and therefore no longer possesses historic integrity, or was not present during the period of historic significance or is incapable of yielding important information about that period, or has been so altered or deteriorated that overall integrity of the building has been irretrievably lost.

- (7) Object. A material thing of functional, archeological, aesthetic, cultural, historical, or scientific value that may be by nature of design, movable, yet related to a specific setting or environment.
- (8) Ordinary maintenance. Work which does not require a construction permit and that is done to repair damage or to prevent deterioration or decay of a building or structure or part thereof as nearly as practicable to its condition prior to the damage, deterioration, or decay.
- (9) Original appearance. That appearance (except for color) which, to the satisfaction of the Historic Preservation Board, closely resembles the appearance of either (1) the feature on the building as it was originally built or was likely to have been built, or (2) the feature on the building as it presently exists so long as the present appearance is appropriate, in the opinion of the Historic Preservation Board, to the style and materials of the building.

Preservation. The identification, evaluation, recordation, documentation, analysis, recovery, interpretation, curation, acquisition, protection, management, rehabilitation, restoration, stabilization, maintenance, or reconstruction of historic structures and properties.

Ordinance No. 572

Exhibit A

Reconstruction. The authentic reproduction of a building or site that once existed, but disappeared or was demolished, using no existing parts of the site.

Rehabilitation. The act or process of returning a property to a state of utility through repair or alteration which makes possible an efficient contemporary use while preserving those portions or features of the property that are significant to its historical, architectural, and cultural values.

Relocation. When a structure or building is moved, intact, to a new site.

Repairable. Structure or building features that can be fixed or restored without creating an imminent hazard to public safety. For the purpose of this code, it is assumed that most damage, including partial termite or partial fire damage, can be repaired. It shall be the applicant's responsibility to demonstrate otherwise.

Resource. Sites, buildings, structures, objects, districts, and areas, public or private, single or in combination.

Restoration. The creation of an authentic reproduction beginning with existing parts of an object or building.

Revitalization. The imparting of new economic and community life in an existing neighborhood or business district while at the same time preserving the original building stock and historic character.

Sense of place. The sum of attributes of a locality, neighborhood, or property that give it a unique and distinctive character.

(10) Site. The location of a significant event, a prehistoric or historic occupation or activity, or building, or structure, whether standing, ~~reined~~ruined, or vanished, where the location itself maintains a historical or archaeological value regardless of the value of any existing structures.

Streetscape. The distinguishing and pictorial character of a particular street as created by its width, degree of curvature paving materials, design of the street furniture, and form of surrounding buildings.

(11) Structure. A structure is anything constructed or erected, the use of which requires a fixed location on the ground or attachment to something having a fixed location on the ground.

Style. A type of architecture distinguished by special characteristics of structure and ornament and often related in time; also a general quality of distinctive character.

Vernacular Buildings. Buildings designed and built without the aid of an architect or trained designer; buildings whose design is based on ethnic, social, or cultural traditions rather than on an architectural philosophy.

Sec. 2-94. - Historic Preservation Board.

The Historic Preservation Board (the "Board," generally in this ordinance) is hereby established to guide and monitor the provisions of this Historic Preservation Program. ~~historic preservation provisions of this division.~~

Sec. 2-95. - Membership.

The Historic Preservation Board shall have five members as follows:

- (1) Members shall be appointed by the city council. The appointments may be made on the basis of civic pride, integrity, experience, and interest in the field of historic preservation. The City Council should, whenever possible, appoint a representative from each of the following areas of expertise:
 - a. History.
 - b. Real estate or real property appraisal.

Ordinance No. 572

Exhibit A

- c. Urban planning.
- d. Engineering or building construction.
- e. Architect

(2) Upon the creation of the five-member Board, one of the board members shall serve one initial term of one-year. Two of the Board members shall each serve one initial term of two years. The remaining two members shall each serve one initial three-year term.

(3) Thereafter, members shall be appointed to three-year terms. ~~No member may serve more than three consecutive terms.~~

(4) All members shall be unrelated and reside within the city limits of the city, except that one of the five members may be a resident of the West Volusia County who has an interest in Orange City and historic preservation.

Sec. 2-96. - Officers.

The members of the ~~board~~ Board shall annually elect a chair and vice chair from among the members and may create and fill other offices as the ~~board~~ Board deems necessary.

Sec. 2-97. - Staffing.

The city manager shall appoint a city employee to serve as secretary and recorder of all ~~B~~board records.

Sec. 2-98. - Compensation.

Members shall not be compensated.

Sec. 2-99. - Funding.

The city council shall appropriate funds to permit the Historic Preservation Board to perform its prescribed functions.

Sec. 2-100. - Meetings.

Meetings shall be held on an as needed basis.

Sec. 2-101. - Statement of purpose and general functions, powers and duties of the Historic Preservation Board.

(a) Generally. It shall be the general responsibility of the Historic Preservation Board to take appropriate action to ensure that the historic preservation provisions of this division are implemented.

(b) Specifically. It shall be the specific responsibility of the Historic Preservation Board to:

(1) Create and recommend a historic district and landmarks for the city to the city council which shall consist of a map, a boundary legal description and a list of all properties that have significant historic value.

(2) Update the Florida Master Site File, which is considered the city's official inventory of cultural resources, and submit report updates to the city council, ~~recommendations and documentation concerning the updating.~~

(3) Develop and recommend to the city, programs to stimulate public interest in urban neighborhood conservation, to participate in the adaptation of existing codes, ordinances, procedures, and programs to reflect urban neighborhood conservation policies and goals.

(4) Explore funding ~~the grant~~ sources and advise property owners concerning which might be available for identification, protection, enhancement, perpetuation, and use of historic, architectural, archaeological, and cultural resources.

Ordinance No. 572

Exhibit A

- (5) Cooperate with agencies of city, county, regional, state and federal governments in planning proposed and future projects to reflect historic preservation concerns and policies, and assist in the development of proposed and future land use plans.
- (6) Advise property owners and local governmental agencies concerning the proper protection, maintenance, enhancement, and preservation of cultural resources.
- (7) Advise the city council concerning the effects of local governmental actions on cultural resources.
- (8) Review and recommend to the city, the designation of sites, buildings, structures, objects, and districts, both public and private, as historically or architecturally significant.
- (9) With the assistance of the city employee appointed by the city manager, provide technical assistance to encourage historic preservation.

Secs. 2-102. - Reserved.

Sec. 2-103. - Reserved-Demolition.

Sec. 2-103.1. — Applicability.

The provisions of this section apply to any structure contained in the Orange City Historic Resource Map and the FMSF. Structures less than 50 years old are exempt from the provisions of this Section unless otherwise indicated herein.

Sec. 2-103.2- Purpose and intent.

The purpose of this section is to ensure that historic properties are protected from demolition by providing procedures for review.

Sec. 2-103.3- Application Requirements and Process.

- (1) Building permits that impact applicable historic properties and resources may be required to apply for a City Historic Demolition Permit and provide the following supporting documents:
 - a. A written description and graphic display of the building(s) and/or portions of the building(s) to be demolished;
 - b. A description of the means of demolition to be utilized;
 - c. The expected date for demolition to begin;
 - d. The estimated number of days necessary to complete the demolition and remove the resulting debris. The actual time of demolition, cleanup and where applicable, regrading and revegetation shall not exceed 100 working days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays;
 - e. Plans for redevelopment. Demolition of historic buildings without definitive plans for redevelopment is discouraged. This factor evaluates the proposed reuse of the property if the proposed demolition is carried out and what the effect of those plans on the character of the surrounding area would be.
- (2) The Development Services Director (DSD) shall review the application. The DSD has 5 working days to determine if the application is complete, correct and eligible for administrative approval.
- (3) Administrative Review Process (Minor)
 - a. Administrative review procedure applies to the following activities:

Ordinance No. 572

Exhibit A

- i. Demolition followed by replacement with no change in the size and configuration for, and using materials true in character with the style of the building for roofs, windows, fences and gates, awnings, exterior lighting;
 - ii. Demolition followed by replacement with no change in the size and configuration for drives, walks, patios, decks, stairs, signs, screening fences and walls;
 - iii. Accessory structures 120 square feet or less in the rear yard;
 - iv. Detached decks that are not visible from a street;
 - v. Exterior façade not visible from the right-of-way;
 - vi. Any other request determined by the DSD to have a minor impact or no potential detriment on the historic resource or area.
- b. The DSD shall issue a written decision approving, denying or approving with conditions the application based on the review criteria of this section.
- c. If the DSD determines that the application is not eligible for administrative review, then staff will request additional information, prepare a staff recommendation and forward to the Board for review in accordance with this section.

(4) Board Review Process (Major)

Any building permit not previously determined to be eligible for administrative review shall be reviewed by the Board. Any permit impacting properties listed in the NRHP or in the FMSF shall be reviewed by the Board. Board review may also occur at the request of the applicant.

- a. The applicant shall submit one, or more if requested by the Board, of the following supporting documents:
- i. A report from a professional property appraiser stating that such building will not earn a reasonable economic return for the owner of such building on the original site.
 - ii. A report from a licensed engineer or architect with experience in rehabilitation as to the structural soundness of the structure and its suitability for rehabilitation.
 - iii. Estimated market value of the property both in its current condition and after completion of the proposed demolition or removal, to be presented through an appraisal by a qualified professional expert.
 - iv. An estimate from an architect, developer, appraiser or other real estate professional experienced in rehabilitation as to the economic feasibility of rehabilitation or reuse of the existing structure on the property.
- b. The Board shall use the review criteria set forth in this section and take one of the following actions:
- i. Approve the demolition with an immediate effective date;
 - ii. Approve the demolition with special modifications and conditions;
 - iii. Delay the approval for demolition for a period of not less than 30 days and not more than 180 days to request additional information. The length of delay shall be determined based on the relative significance of the structure and the probable time required to arrange a possible alternative to demolition. During the stay of demolition, the Board may take such steps as it deems necessary to preserve the building or structure concerned in accordance with the purpose of this chapter. Such steps may include, but shall not be limited to, consultation with civic groups, public agencies, and interested citizens; recommendation for acquisition of property by public or private bodies or agencies; and exploration of the possibility of moving the structure or building;

Ordinance No. 572

Exhibit A

iv. Deny the request for demolition.

(5) Review criteria. The Development Services Director and/or the Board will use the following criteria when making a decision:

- a. The building or structure is of such interest or quality that it would reasonably meet national standards for additional designation on the National Register of Historic Places or as a National Historic Landmark.
- b. The building, structure, or object contributes substantially to the ambiance of a district and the historical area's sense of place.
- c. The building, structure or object is of such design, texture, material, detail, or unique location that it would be of great difficulty and/or expense to reproduce.
- d. The building, structure, or object is one of the last remaining examples of its kind in the neighborhood, the county, or the region.
- e. Definite plans exist for redevelopment of the property if the proposed demolition is carried out, and those plans will have a positive effect on the character of the surrounding properties.
- f. A reasonable effort was made to relocate or save the building, structure, or object from collapse.
- g. Retention of the building or structure would promote the general welfare of the city by providing an opportunity for the study of local history, architecture, or design.
- h. Demolition of the building or structure has been recommended or ordered by the building official due to unsafe conditions.

(6) Conditions of approval. The Development Services Director and/or the Historic Preservation Board may grant demolition approval with one or more of the following conditions designed to provide an historical record of the property as it stood prior to demolition:

- a. Provide a written and pictorial record of the building or structure's history and architectural feature for archival purposes, consistent with the State of Florida Bureau of Historic Preservation Division of Historic Resources' Documentation Requirements For Buildings Proposed For Demolition and Standards for Architectural Documentation.
- b. Design the replacement building(s) or structure to meet the character of the traditional neighborhood area and submit drawings of the proposed work, photographs of existing buildings or structures on adjacent properties and information about the proposed buildings materials to be use for approval.
- c. Allow archaeological study of the property before and/or during demolition if the property falls within an area demonstrated to have a medium or high probability to contain archaeological resources.
- d. Allow salvage activities of the historic resource provided the Board finds there are salvageable materials within the site.
- e. Meet any other condition that is reasonable to mitigate the demolition of the historic resource.

Sec. 2-103.4 – Demolition by Neglect. A property owner's failure to provide ordinary and necessary maintenance and repair of an historic property or resource that result in injury or loss to exterior features, permanent damage, or destruction through abandonment or lack of maintenance will be considered in the act of demolition by neglect, and the standards of this chapter apply.

If the Board determines that a structure is in the course of being "demolished by neglect," the owner shall be notified of the conditions of the structure and the items that need repair. The Board may request a meeting with the owner or tenant of the building for the purpose of encouraging positive intervention before code enforcement action becomes necessary.

Ordinance No. 572

The Development Services Director shall place the discussion item on the agenda of the Historic Preservation Board within 30 days. The Board shall present ways to improve the condition of the property. If the owner or tenant fails to take action, the Board shall submit a written report to Orange City Code Enforcement, who may institute proceedings under the authority of applicable laws and regulations.

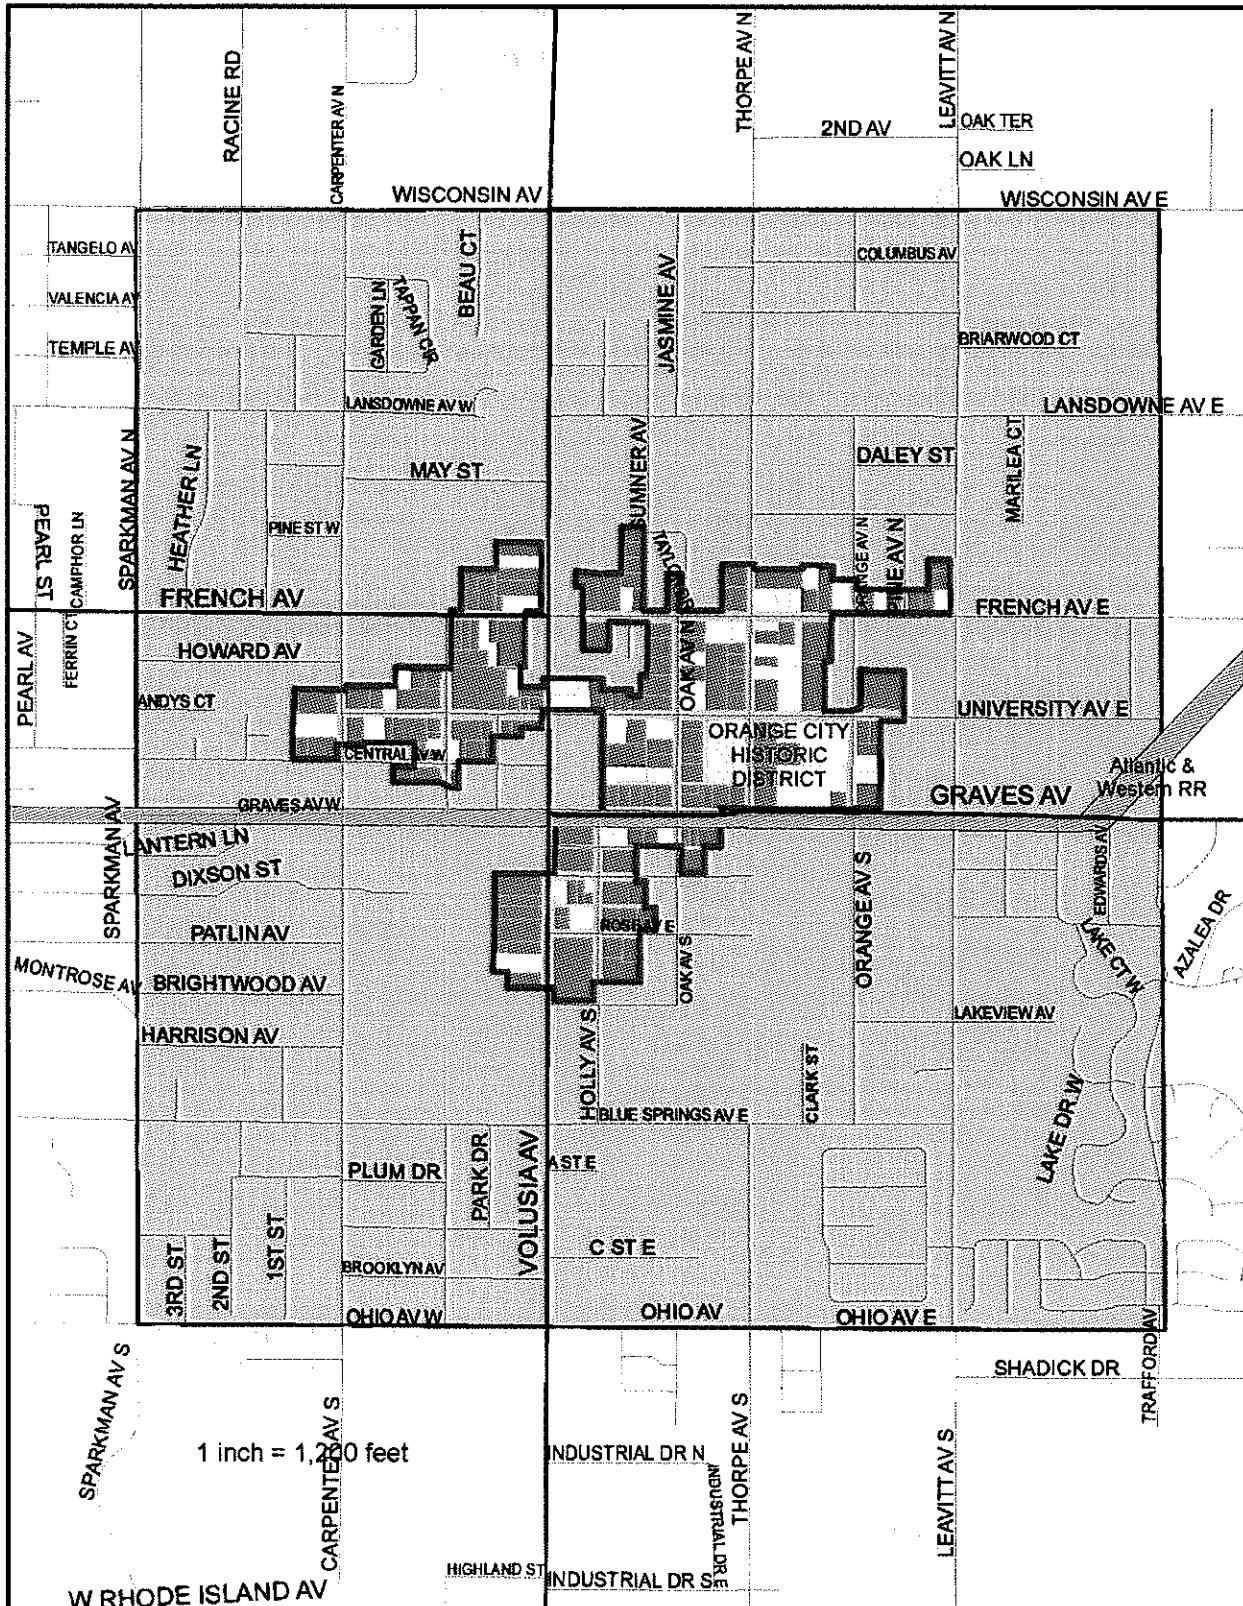

Sec. 2-103.5 - Emergency conditions applicable to this section.

The City's Building Official shall immediately notify the Development Services Director of cases where there are emergency conditions dangerous to life, health or property affecting a building or structure in a designated historic area, a contributing building or structure, or a building or structure more than 50 years old. Notification to Development Services Director shall consist of a report from a building official describing the dangerous conditions, actions take, reasons for taking action, and any other documentation that the Development Services Director shall require in order to prepare a report, oral or written, to present to the Board. After consultation with the DSD, the Chief Building Official may order the remedying of the dangerous conditions without the approval of the Historic Preservation Board.

Sec. 2-103.6. Appeals.

Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Development Services Director may file an appeal in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3- Land Development Code after first being considered and a recommendation made by the Historic Preservation Board.

Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Historic Preservation Board may file an appeal in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 3- Land Development Code.
